Sharing Your Story Helps

There are thousands of bad banking stories right around Australia showing how the banks rip off ordinary people, destroy families, farms and businesses. The trauma often results in ruined or taken lives. Don't be alone in this, share your story, hear from others, gain support and join in to fight against these crimes that usually go unpunished. We seek justice - including full compensation for bank victims. In too many cases even that is not enough - it is just way too late. Let us together say "enough is enough."

Add your story in the Bad Banking Stories section of this website (login required) and discuss things here (add your comment in the form below or click reply).
